

Quiz on British Nationality law, policy and practice

- 1) When did the British Nationality Act 1981 come into force?
  - i) On 1 January 1983
  - ii) On 1 January 1981
  - iii) On 1 January 1982

- 2) By when must an internal review on a refusal be submitted to the Home Office?
  - i) Within three months from date of refusal
  - ii) Within 21 days from date of refusal
  - iii) At any time after date of refusal

- 3) Where can I find out with certainty what the application requirements are in nationality applications?
  - i) Home Office nationality guidance
  - ii) British Nationality Act 1981
  - iii) British Nationality (General) Regulations 2003

- 4) Is a British citizenship ceremony compulsory for all persons aged 18 and over?
  - i) Yes
  - ii) No
  - iii) Maybe
  - iv) There are special circumstances where this may be waived

- 5) A child born in the UK seeking to register by entitlement under section 1(4) BNA 1981 must not have been absent from the UK for more than 90 days each year
  - i) Yes
  - ii) No
  - iii) Yes, but there are special circumstances where absence may be waived

- 6) An illegitimate child born in the UK after 1/7/2006 to a British or settled father
  - i) Is British
  - ii) Can register by entitlement
  - iii) Can register by discretion

- 7) To register, an illegitimate child born in the UK before 1/7/2006 to a British or settled father
  - i) Has to be of good character
  - ii) Has to pay a fee
  - iii) Neither of the above

- 8) A citizenship application is treated as received by the Home Office
  - I) On the date that it was posted
  - II) On the date that it was received
  - III) On the date that the application was signed

9) The Home Office expects a European national parent to have settled status confirmed at the time of the child's birth in the UK if the child is to be treated as British at birth:

- i) Before 2 October 2000
- ii) Between 2 October 2000 and 28 April 2006
- iii) On or after 29 April 2006